

Japanische Filmmatinées

in Basel und Zürich

In Zusammenarbeit mit der Japanischen Botschaft Bern

Basel:

Sonntag, 6. November 2011, 11 Uhr

Katholisches Studentenhaus, Herbergsgasse 7, 4051 Basel

Ab Bahnhof: Tram Nr. 11 bis Kantonsspital

Ab Autobahn: City-Parking, Ausgang Petersgraben, siehe auch

www.ortsplan.ch

Eintritt frei (Kollekte)

Film: “A.UN“ (Buddies), 1989, 114 Min.

Regie: Yasuo Furuhata

Darsteller: Ken Takakura, Sumiko Fuji, Eiji Bando

Originalversion mit englischen Untertiteln

Sumiko Fuji came back to the screen after a 17-year absence with this film BUDDIES, an adaptation of the Kuniko Mukoda's novel, starring with the skilled actor, Ken Takakura. The film plays at the beginning of the Shôwa era around 1935 and describes the year-long friendship between two men with affection and humor. Ken Takakura, who usually has a serious role, plays a rich and witty playboy. Directed by Yasuo Furuhata and shot by Daisaku Kimura, this film got several awards in Japan.

Zürich:

Sonntag, 11. Dezember 2011, 11 Uhr (Türöffnung 10.45 h)

Filmpodium der Stadt Zürich, Nüscherstrasse 11, 8001 Zürich

Tram bis Paradeplatz/Bärengasse

Eintritt frei (Kollekte)

Film: „Ashita e no yuigon“ (Best Wishes for Tomorrow), 2008, 110 Min.

Regie: Takashi Koizumi

Darsteller: Makoto Fujita, Sumiko Fuji

Originalversion mit englischen Untertiteln

The post war trial of Lieutenant General Tasuku Okada, who took responsibility for ordering the execution of 38 captured US prisoners of war, after he considered them to be war criminals instead for the war time fire bombing of Nagoya. Okada took full blame for the war crime, in effect, shielding his subordinates from harsh punishment and earning him wide respect. The movie seeks to call attention to the unresolved question of American war crime culpability in the fire and atomic bombings of Japan.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Best_wishes_for_tomorrow